ADEA/Crest Oral-B Scholarships for Dental Hygiene Students Pursuing Academic Careers Presented to Stefanie Marx and Jessica Holloman

WASHINGTON, DC—The American Dental Education Association (ADEA) presented the 2014 ADEA/Crest Oral-B Laboratories Scholarship for Dental Hygiene Students Pursuing Academic Careers to Jessica Holloman of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill School of Dentistry and Stefanie Marx of the University of Michigan School of Dentistry. These scholarships support dental hygiene students who are pursuing education beyond an associate's degree and who have an interest in an academic career. The two students received the scholarships at the 2014 ADEA Annual Session & Exhibition, held March 15-18 in San Antonio. Each one was awarded $2,000 to pursue education beyond an associate's degree.

"Crest Oral-B congratulates Ms. Holloman and Ms. Marx on their commitment to academic careers," says Desi Nuckolls, Scientific Relations Manager at The Procter & Gamble Company. "Through these scholarships given by ADEA, we are proud to support their efforts in pursuing careers as dental hygiene educators. We wish them the best of luck."

"It is always gratifying for me to recognize future educators, who were inspired themselves by an educator at some point," says ADEA Chair of the Board, Stephen K. Young, D.D.S., M.S. "The recipients of this year's scholarships will in turn become an inspiration to many dental hygiene students, who will provide oral health care for a future generation."
