Michele Abidin, Jeremy Joseph, and Matthew Tomko won the Clinical Excellence Day Poster Awards (2008), which are given to students who presented exemplary posters during Clinical Excellence Day.

Andrew Aderman won the College of Dentistry Alumni Leadership Award, which is presented by the Dental Alumni Society to a student who demonstrates excellent leadership skills and a passion for dentistry.

Kenneth Hines II won the Delta Dental Leadership Award for demonstrated excellence in leadership, and for exhibiting a passion for dentistry.
Joshua Burns and Lynn Farrey won the Demkee Dental Athletic Provider Awards, which are given to dental students who provide dental care in the Department of Athletics.

Donald Rehl won the Dentsply International Merit Award for 2008, which is given to those students who have completed with distinction their studies of Removable Denture Prosthodontics.

Benjamin Sapir and Eileen Saenz won Delta Dental Fund Scholarships for demonstrated excellence in academic skills, and for exhibiting a passion for dentistry.
Eileen Farahay won the Delta Sigma Delta Junior Achievement Award in recognition of the highest academic achievement during the first three years in the study of dentistry.

Tiffany Cockley, Nathaniel Farley, Ashley Paulus, and Donald Rehl won Dr. Lewis and Dr. Richard L. Basch Memorial Scholarship Awards (2007-2008), which recognize junior dental students who consistently demonstrate outstanding competency in communications and patient management skills.
Kenneth Hines II won the Foundation of the Pierre Fauchard Academy Dental Student Scholarship Award (2007), which is presented to an individual for outstanding and dedicated service to the dental profession.

Joshua Burns won the Pierre Fauchard Academy Student Award, which is presented to an individual for outstanding and dedicated service to the dental profession.

Andrew Rummel won the International College of Dentists award, which recognizes and promotes leadership skills in members of the dental profession.
Jeffrey Budrys won the International Congress of Oral Implantologists Sullivan Schein Achievement Award for outstanding achievements in promoting the objectives of the Congress.

Donald Rehl and Ashley Paulus won the James V. (Fuzzy) Marquard Awards (2008).
Kevin Burgdorf, Ryan Davis, Cortni Gaffney, Spencer Johnson, and Kathleen Varley won the National Board Part II Study Team Award.

Kyle Bogan won the student award from the Northeastern Society of Periodontists, which is awarded for student periodontal achievement.
Ashley Paulus won the Quintessence Research Achievement Award, which recognizes outstanding achievement in research.

Daniel Choi won the Quintessence Clinical Achievement in Periodontology Award, which recognizes outstanding achievement in periodontology.

Peter Lovejoy won the Quintessence Clinical Achievement in Restorative Dentistry Award, which recognizes outstanding achievement in restorative dentistry.
Benjamin Frandsen won the William S. Kramer Award. This award recognizes a third-year dental student who embodies the ideals of scholarship, character and potential for advancement of the profession of dentistry and service to humanity, which Dr. William S. Kramer demonstrated throughout his career.