CHARLES J. ALEXANDER, PHD
ASSOCIATE VICE PROVOST FOR STUDENT DIVERSITY
UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA, LOS ANGELES

WHY VALUE DIVERSITY?

It broadens and deepens both the educational experience and the scholarly environment, as students and faculty learn to interact effectively with each other, preparing them to participate in an increasingly complex and pluralistic society.

It promotes mutual respect and makes possible the full, effective use of the talents and abilities of all to foster innovation and train future leadership.

It is a source of innovative ideas and creative accomplishments.

THE DIVERSITY “BONUS”

“Substantial evidence suggests that functional and identity diverse groups are more innovative...studies also suggest that groups whose members have diverse preferences are more creative.”

Scott Page, The Difference, 2007
Princeton University Press, p. 327

“The diverse group almost always outperforms the group of the best by a substantial margin.”

Proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences (2002)

MAKING EXCELLENCE INCLUSIVE

Campuses must create synergy within and across organizational systems through:

- The alignment of structures
- Politics
- Curricular frameworks
- Faculty development policies
- Resources symbols
- Cultures

MAKING EXCELLENCE INCLUSIVE

Successful change calls for a sophisticated approach that attends to all of these organizational complexities.

SENATE OF THE UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA

Adopted by the Assembly of the Academic Senate May 10, 2006

Endorsed by the President of the University of California June 30, 2006

Adopted as Amended by the Assembly of the Academic Senate April 22, 2009

Endorsed as Amended by the President of the University of California August 17, 2010

The diversity of the people of California has been the source of innovative ideas and creative accomplishments throughout the state's history into the present. Diversity – a defining feature of California's past, present, and future – refers to the variety of personal experiences, values, and worldviews that arise from differences of culture and circumstance. Such differences include race, ethnicity, gender, age, religion, language, abilities/disabilities, sexual orientation, gender identity, socioeconomic status, and geographic region, and more.

Because the core mission of the University of California is to serve the interests of the State of California, it must seek to achieve diversity among its student bodies and among its employees. The State of California has a compelling interest in making sure that people from all backgrounds perceive that access to the University is possible for talented students, staff, and faculty from all groups.

The knowledge that the University of California is open to qualified students from all groups, and thus serves all parts of the community equitably, helps sustain the social fabric of the State.
