

GOT ETHICS? Worksheet

Exploring the value of interprofessional collaboration through a comparison of discipline-specific code of ethics.
The Interprofessional Ethics Grid Participant Handout.

What are 3 key principles of this code of ethics?

Round 1: Assigned Professional Code of Ethics (complete with same assigned profession)	Round 2: Another Professional Code of Ethics (complete in pairs with mixed professions)	Round 3: Dentistry or Hygiene Code of Ethics (complete individually)

What is the primary duty to the patient/family/community?

Round 1: Assigned Professional Code of Ethics (complete with same assigned profession)	Round 2: Another Professional Code of Ethics (complete in pairs with mixed professions)	Round 3: Dentistry or Hygiene Code of Ethics (complete individually)

How does the code of ethics address collaboration?
Round 1: Assigned Professional Code of Ethics (complete with same assigned profession)	Round 2: Another Professional Code of Ethics (complete in pairs with mixed professions)	Round 3: Dentistry or Hygiene Code of Ethics (complete individually)
Does the code seem to primarily address the patient, the provider, or some other group? Does it seem to be created more to enforce standards or to protect the patient or provider?
Round 1: Assigned Professional Code of Ethics (complete with same assigned profession)	Round 2: Another Professional Code of Ethics (complete in pairs with mixed professions)	Round 3: Dentistry or Hygiene Code of Ethics (complete individually)