Welcome to the 2015 ADEA Annual Session & Exhibition

Please enjoy this first issue of the Session Daily for the ADEA Annual Session & Exhibition. The Session Daily is your one-stop source for program highlights, special events and general news about the Annual Session & Exhibition.

Over the next four days you will attend a variety of informative and interactive educational sessions and workshops, as well as engaging plenary sessions. Additionally, you will have ample opportunity to network and socialize with peers and colleagues. There’s so much to see and do, and we encourage you to use the 2015 ADEA Annual Session & Exhibition mobile app to navigate this rich meeting.

The Exhibit Hall is open on Sunday and Monday, March 8–9, with dedicated and extended hours on both days. Stop by and visit more than 70 exhibitors (including the ADEA Showcase), the ADEA TechExpo and poster presentations by faculty and students. We have limited programming that overlaps with Exhibit Hall hours so you can take advantage of enhanced offerings in the Exhibit Hall and the scheduled networking opportunities, including the Connect & Collaborate Lounge, a coffee break and lunches for attendees.

This year we are again offering in the Exhibit Hall an exciting series titled New Idea Sessions—informal 20-minute topical discussions for 50 participants. Presenters will address an issue, followed by a question and answer period. See your program book or the mobile app for a complete listing, and please note that CE credits are not awarded for participation in these sessions.

In addition, there are three Chair of the ADEA Board of Directors Symposia this year. Unlocking Potential Through Collaboration: A Shared Model for Faculty Mentoring (Sunday at 4:00 p.m.), Igniting Minds Through Student Self-directed Group Learning: Integrated Problem Sessions (Monday at 1:30 p.m.) and Financing the Future of Dental Education (Tuesday at 8:00 a.m.). We hope you’ll attend these informative sessions and take advantage of the unique opportunities to hear experts and visionaries in our profession.

The Annual Session & Exhibition will end with the closing of the ADEA House of Delegates at 4:30 p.m. on Tuesday, March 10. While you are here in Boston, watch for a new issue of the Session Daily tomorrow, Monday and Tuesday mornings. And, if you have something to share with your fellow attendees, please take a moment to speak with our writers after plenary and breakout sessions.

Again, welcome, and enjoy your time here in Boston!

The 2015 ADEA Annual Session & Exhibition is Wired

Have everything you need in the palm of your hand with the 2015 ADEA Annual Session & Exhibition mobile app. This year there are many great features. With the 2015 mobile app you can:

- Sync your online planner directly to the mobile app (NEW).
- Download speaker presentations and images (NEW).
- Access session evaluations (NEW).
- Send in-app messages and emails to fellow attendees.
- Share your experiences via social media.
- Access interactive exhibitor booth listings, company and product profiles.
- Review interactive session and event schedules.
- Receive show alerts, and much more.

Also new this year—get rid of that spiral notebook and use the mobile app during educational sessions to take notes. Find the uploaded presentation and interact with the slides by drawing directly on the screen and highlighting text. Use the note-taking mode to type your notes next to each slide. Later, you can print the notes you took from your “Online Personal Summary,” which is accessible from the app’s main search screen. You can also email yourself the link to your notes by selecting “Email Summary Link.”

Tips to get started:

- Download the app by searching “2015 ADEA” in the app store on your device.
- Log in using the email address you used for registration, along with the Registration ID Number included in your 2015 ADEA Annual Session & Exhibition Registration confirmation email.

To ensure that you receive the most up-to-date information, including onsite education session meeting room changes and general show alerts, be sure to accept the mobile app “push notifications” option when prompted.

ADEA also provides an online program planner (http://www.eventscribe.com/2015/adea/), which can be used to create a custom itinerary, browse the schedule or search for presentations and sessions by learning focus, type, title, date, time, presenter name or institution. You can create your own schedule of meetings and personal events and access your itinerary from your computer anytime or through the mobile app.

Also, be sure to follow @adeaweb on Twitter and use the hashtag #adea15 to join the conversation in Boston!

Congratulations to the ADEA Leadership Institute Class of 2015! The Commencement Reception was held Friday, March 6, at 6:00 p.m.

Friday’s Highlights

Some attendees arrived in Boston early to participate in Annual Session & Exhibition pre-programming scheduled for Friday, March 6. A featured session on Friday explored the ways that dental schools are making a difference in access to dental care, diversity and equality. Titled Access, Diversity and Equity: The Role of Dental Education, it was presented by Paul Glassman, D.D.S., M.A. MBA, University of the Pacific, Arthur A. Dugoni School of Dentistry, and Kim D’Abreu, M.P.H., ADEA.

The discussion in this interactive session focused on forming a new special interest group within ADEA. While there are other ADEA sections and special interest groups that touch on access, diversity and equality, there currently is not a group dedicated to the broad role dental education institutions can play in improving oral health in underserved populations.

For the past two years, Dr. Glassman and Ms. D’Abreu have co-directed the Dental Pipeline National Dental Learning Institute. Through this partnership between ADEA and Pacific Dugoni, 18 dental schools have engaged community partners to implement a year-long minority student recruitment and retention campaign. The campaign aims to expand community-based dental education with the ultimate goal of creating a diverse workforce of dentists who understand the oral health needs of patients from underserved populations.

“While working to forge better partnerships between dental schools and their respective communities, we also hope to sound a clarion call to action for a broad community of stakeholders to recruit students from diverse backgrounds into the pipeline and to address oral disease among underserved populations,” said Ms. D’Abreu.

How to Obtain an ADEA SoTLfest Certificate of Recognition

The ADEA Scholarship of Teaching and Learning (ADEA SoTLfest)-related sessions examine how teaching is valued, assessed and rewarded, and how it contributes to the overall learning experience of students and educators. To be eligible for an ADEA SoTLfest Certificate of Recognition, you must participate in a minimum of three ADEA SoTLfest-designated sessions plus at least one Chair of the ADEA Board of Directors Symposia and complete the online evaluation process associated with those sessions. For more details regarding which sessions are designated for ADEA SoTL or information on CE, please visit adea.org/atadea15 or look for the yellow “SOTL” next to session titles in the program book.
